Examination Day Guidelines

Please read carefully

- Candidates must bring their admit cards to every examination along with their original CNIC or some other form of photo identity (e.g. passport) to prove the validity of their admit card. No candidate will be allowed to sit for the exam without presenting the admit card and a valid photo identity. Impersonation will result in expulsion from the entire examination, cancellation of examination in all courses and debarment from appearing in the subsequent ten examinations.
- All candidates must be present in the examination centre at least 30 minutes before the beginning of the examination. Candidates will not be allowed to enter the examination hall after the examination has commenced. Once all candidates have been seated, no candidate shall be allowed to leave the examination hall without express permission from an invigilator.
- Candidates are not allowed to bring bags, mobile phones, charts, tables, books, papers or any other reference material to the examination hall. All personal items must be stored in the designated area.
- Simple, silent and non-programmable calculators are allowed in those papers where required.
- Candidates shall ONLY use a blue or black pen for writing answers. All answers shall be written in English language only. Non-compliance of these instructions will mean cancellation of the paper for the offending candidate.
- The Questions-Answers booklet does not bear the course title and date of the examination. The examination superintendent will announce the name of the subjects, their particular codes and the specific stage immediately after the distribution of Questions-Answers booklets. Candidates must ensure that the booklet provided to them is of the same course in which they intend to appear.
- Candidates must not write their names, roll numbers or other particulars in any part of their exam booklet, except on the slip provided. Disclosure of identity in any manner is not allowed and is liable to penalty resulting in cancellation of the paper for the offending candidate.
- A candidate who commits any violation of the rules governing examinations, is liable to be disqualified from the particular examination, to immediate expulsion from the examination room and to such further penalty as may be determined from the ISQ Handbook.
